

Cats Vs. Drone! An Epic Encounter...

I found a decent little Quad with 720P Camera for under $60.00 and I am trying it out to see how it flies and what kind of video it produces. The cats reaction was pretty great! The cats were never close enough to this Quad to get hurt by it. The camera angle makes it look like a fierce encounter, but it wasn't!

This is not a professional quad, and the video quality isn't professional either. Its very hard to fly but still quite fun and for less than 4 people can eat at a decent restaurant, you can have a HD flying QUAD. Not bad!
