Recycle and Old Canvas & Make It Shine with Resin & GLOW with LEDs

I reworked a canvas that was painted a long time ago! Using resin and paint, mixing media with led lights - I gave this a bit of a redo! Hope you like it.   To Create This Design, Small Incisions Just Large Enough To Push The Led Light Through Are Made On The Back Of The Canvas

This video is a copy, the first one was in the Aeon Media channel. Slowing moving all the DIY and Modding concept work over here ;)

ADDITIONAL THOUGHTS

Painted This 10 Years Ago And I Wanted A Change.

First Use Acrylic Black Paint And Covered The Entire Design, then Small Amount Of Silver Paint For Contrast

I Am Using A Waterproof Led String Light With A Remote
